

Conference bingo – 06.05.2021

You can hardly stand the exciting conference atmosphere? You never miss a word of what a lecturer says? Now you can prove it.

Mark a box with a cross as soon as the corresponding word is heard during a talk or discussion. If you have five crosses in a row horizontally, vertically or diagonally, go to the conference office to be entered on the leader board.

|                                       |                |             |                         |                                |
|---------------------------------------|----------------|-------------|-------------------------|--------------------------------|
| phoneme                               | semantic       | variety     | workshop                | obviously                      |
| data                                  | um...er... | categories  | adjective               | method                         |
| comprehen-sion                    | definitely     | well        | grammaticali-zation | Can every-body hearme? |
| Thank you foryour atten-tion! | V2             | prosody     | especially              | verb                           |
| feature                               | syntactic      | sound shift | representative          | cultural                       |